

JAMES E. WEST FELLOWSHIP AWARD

For

Contributions to the permanent Endowment Funding Scouting in Perpetuity

JAMES E. WEST, the first Chief Executive Officer of the Boy Scouts of America. West knew that, to be prepared for the future, the youth of his day needed guidelines to live by and to share with their peers. He took the principles of Scouting developed in England by Robert Baden-Powell and during 30 years of service, led a fledgling organization into the leading youth movement in the United States.

The James E. West Fellowship Award recognizes individuals, foundations and corporations that make a gift of $1,000 to the Black Swamp Area Council, Boy Scouts of America Endowment Fund. The gift can be made in memory or honor of a Scouter. Gifts can be made by check, installments via credit card or stock transfer.

The principal of your gift is retained forever and the annual income is used to benefit Northwest Ohio Scouts and Explorers in perpetuity.
